Public Library Card Sign Up at Schools

Caruthersville Public Library and Caruthersville Public School District are partnering to help make city library cards available to all students.

There are currently two options – eCard only, which students may sign up for themselves by simply signing the application picked up at school, which only permits the child to use the eResources – eBooks, eVideos, eAudios, and online databases – and the Classic library card, which allows the students to have all benefits of the Caruthersville Public Library – checking out books, audiobooks, and DVDs, as well as being able to take part in our programming and movies on Sundays. For this card, a parent must bring the application in to the library and sign it at the circulation desk as being responsible for the student.

We hope to see many new patrons at Caruthersville Public Library from the school!

Caruthersville Area Arts Council Bookgroup will be meeting on April 26 at 11 a.m. to discuss the book “Small Great Things” by Jodi Piccoult.

'There is a fire raging, and we have two choices: we can turn our backs, or we can try to fight it.' When a newborn baby dies after a routine hospital procedure, there is no doubt about who will be held responsible: the nurse who had been banned from looking after him by his father. What the nurse, her lawyer and the father of the child cannot know is how this death will irrevocably change all of their lives, in ways both expected and not.

Small Great Things is about prejudice and power; it is about that which divides and unites us. It is about opening your eyes.

This is a really great story and it should be a lively discussion. All are welcome!

BOOTHEEL BOOKWORMS – our online bookgroup is reading “The Roanoke Girls” by Amy Engel – Just get the book and begin reading!

“Roanoke girls never last long around here. In the end, we either run or we die.” As it weaves between Lane’s first Roanoke summer and her return, The Roanoke Girls shocks and tantalizes, twisting its way through revelation after mesmerizing revelation, exploring the secrets families keep and the fierce and terrible love that both binds them together and rips them apart.
