

Sunday Movies at the Library

March 2018

March 4, 2018 - "Finding Amanda"

A television producer with a penchant for drinking and gambling is sent to Las Vegas to convince his troubled niece to enter rehab. Starring Matthew Broderick and Brittany Snow

March 11 – CHS Drama Dept. presents "The Wizard of Oz" at 3:00 and 6:00 – Tickets are $7.00 each, available at the Library Circulation Desk or at CHS

March 18, 2018 - "The New World"

Arriving with a British expedition in Virginia in 1607, Capt. John Smith (Colin Farrell) is captured by Native Americans. His life is spared thanks to Pocahontas (Q'orianka Kilcher), daughter of the tribe's chief. Smith and Pocahontas fall in love, to the mutual dismay of the Native Americans and the British. Smith is sent away, and his death is reported. An unhappy Pocahontas marries settler John Rolfe (Christian Bale). When Smith turns up alive, Pocahontas is torn between the two men.

March 25, 2018 – "Trial and Error"

Charles Tuttle is a mild-mannered attorney sent to a small desert town a few days before his wedding to defend a cry-baby con artist. Stars Jeff Daniels Michael Richards and Rip Torn