Summer Reading Wraps Up

Our summer reading program "Libraries Rock!" will take the week of July 1-8 off, but will return for the final three weeks on July 10th. Tuesday is storytime day with some amazing guest readers, Wednesday is Children's movie day, and Thursday is the popular Crafternoon. Two more musical instruments remain to be handed out for the summer and more rock painting and hiding in town will take place.

Turn those reading logs in for minutes and books read over the summer months, since we have awesome prizes which will be awarded the week of July 23-27 through our prize drawing. We will also be handing out round two of summer reading goodie bags with lots more free books and our friends at Casey's have provided free pizza coupons.

Get or Update your Caruthersville Public Library

New and updated Website at cville.lib.mo.us or Google
Caruthersville Public Library

Caruthersville Public Library has recently updated its website to be much more user-friendly for our patrons. You now have access to current information about our movies, bookgroups, and any happenings around the library, as well as finding links to the online databases and other information to help job-seekers, online students, and others.

You will also find the links to the online digitized newspapers, The Critic, The Gayoso Democrat, The Pemiscot Argus, and the Twice-a-Week Democrat and the Democrat-Argus, available from years 1891-1966 – indexed and searchable.

We also provide current info about our regular programs and offer a community calendar for various agencies in Caruthersville, showing their events.

The new WordPress website is like one-stop shopping for our library services, containing links to our catalog and to MOLib2Go, our online books platform. We also inform patrons about our newest materials, making it easy to place a hold on the newest items and to be among the first to have new materials. Our policies and procedures have a place on the new site, as well, along with the history of our library and the Kaye Norton Gill Genealogy Room, the John L. VanAusdall Jr. Reading Pavilion, and the Baxter Southern Auditorium.

A contact form is located in order to place messages to us and for us to answer any questions that patrons may have about Caruthersville Public Library and its resources.

Google our library and take a look at the new website!

Caruthersville and Hayti yearbooks still available!

We can make a copy of the yearbooks from Caruthersville and Hayti for only $10 for each volume on a CD/DVD or USB flash drive. Call or contact us at 333-2480 or <http://cville.lib.mo.us> and we can prepare the volumes that you would like to have.
